LOCAL BRIEFS.

Fifteen Feet of Snow—The Forestry office in this city reports the snow at Brighton as 14 feet deep on the level.

"Songs of Solomon"—Prof. Marshall will discuss the "Songs of Solomon" tomorrow evening with the Y. M. C. A. in the Brooks Arcade. Miss Pearl Allenbaugh will sing.

Lincoln Pictures Here—The promise of pictures of Abraham Lincoln for the public schools have arrived and are ready for delivery, with E. W. Tatlock in charge.

Mrs. Brewster at Home—Mrs. Benjamin Brewster will be at home to members of St. Mark's parish and other friends, at 2:30 to 3 p. m. tomorrow at the Denary.

Mrs. Igleheart's Reading—Mrs. William Igleheart will read from the new drama, "The Servant in the House" on the evening of the 25 inst, in the First Presbyterian church.

Annex to Apartments—Mayor Bransford is planning an annex to the Bransford apartments on South Temple street, on the Dr. A. Niles premises to the east, at an outlay of $75,000. The size of the lot is 45 by 150 feet.

Ladies to Give Card Party—The ladies, auxiliary of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers and firemen will give a card party tomorrow evening in the Jennings block for the benefit of the local lodges. Refreshments will be served.

Working on Speedway—The Salt Lake Automobile club has engineers making surveys of the proposed speedway between this city and Salt Lake. Contracts will be let on the 25 inst. Active construction begins March 1.

Inspection in March—Adjutant General Wedgwood has returned from legal business at Price, where he had been engaged last week. He will shortly issue orders for the annual government inspection of the national guard, which is to begin March 16.

Interdenominational Services—The Women's Missionary Union of this city will observe next Thursday as the interdenominational day of prayer for human missions in the First Presbyterian church, services beginning at 2:30 p. m. The subject will be, "Our Country, Our State, Our City."

Exempted Ones Should Act—In a number of cases where police notices have been sent out to residents of Salt Lake, word has come back that exemptions have been made but not until after suits for collection have been instituted. The Dr. A. Niles collector, said yesterday that in cases of exemption, the street department should be notified at once or the favored ones would have to pay the costs of the suit.

Where Women Rendezvous—Arrangements have been completed by the Women's Relief corps of the Grand Army for its meeting place in Salt Lake, and Mrs. Mary Gilman, national president, has made announcements locating these places. The convention for the corps will be held at the Commercial club on the evening of Aug. 11, while the corps convention will be held at the First Presbyterian church.

Pumps Out of Order—Although the intercepting sewer now has an outlet, the pumps have stopped work, in fact have not worked for some days. All along the line of the sewer work has been bubbling out of the manholes. The result is that the entire west side is threatened with floods. According to City Engineer Kelley, something has broken down and a force of men will be placed at work today to overhaul the pumping station again.

Five Sign Pledge—The religious services held for the city prisoners yesterday in Judge Bowman's courtroom were attended by only five male prisoners. Services were also held in the women's ward and three female prisoners were present. The services were under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and were conducted by Mrs. T. E. and were attended by a number of other ladies. The male prisoners who attended were sufficiently impressed to sign the temperance pledge.

Legislation For Sheep Men—Secretary C. B. Stewart of the Utah Wool Growers association is preparing a petition to be presented by the association to the legislature requesting that a memorial be sent Congress asking that the Burkett public land leasing bill be defeated; that the tariff on wool be maintained at the present figures; that the railroad be compelled to observe a minimum rate for stock transportation, and for the passage of a uniform law regulating sheep grazing in the vicinity of settlements.

Distressing Case of Poverty—The Salvation Army has a distressing case on hand in Mrs. Elizabeth Cherry, at the rear of the east First South street, where she is barely able to live with three small children, one of whom is sick. Mrs. Cherry says she was deserted by her husband four years ago. Until a few days ago, the family had lived in Ogden, which suggests that the Ogden authorities paid their fare to Salt Lake to get them off their hands. The continued stress of weather is causing much suffering among the poor.

FIRST PRINCIPLES ARE ALSO LAST

Elders Rulon S. Wells and John Henry Smith Speakers
At Tabernacle.

FAITH A BASIC DOCTRINE

And In Its Exercise All Others Are Embraced and Exemplified.

The Sunday congregation at the Tabernacle was addressed by Elders Rulon S. Wells of the first council of seventy, and John Henry Smith, of the quorum of apostles. Both discoursed on the first principles of the gospel. Elder Wells referring incidentally to prohibition.

The choir sang three selections, namely, "Great God Attend While Zion Sings," "In Our Redeemer's Name," and "From Afar Gracious Lord Thou Didst Gather Thy Flock." The concluding hymn, "Redeemer of Israel," was sung by the choir and congregation. Elder George R. Emery officiated, reading prayer and benediction. Anthon H. Lund pronounced the benediction, presiding John R. Winder presided.

ELDER RULON S. WELLS.
Elder Wells said in part, To undertake to teach God's children is a great responsibility, one that man is wholly inadequate to take upon himself. The doctrines sometimes referred to as first principles of the gospel are also the last principles, obedience to them constituting the entire plan of salvation. All other principles are but the working out of faith, a true and living faith. This applies to the law of tithing, and to the word of wisdom. The latter pertains, perhaps, more to the principle of repentance.

Prayer is one of the great features of the gospel, combining faith and repentance. It may not be baptism, but it is a petition for forgiveness of sins. It may not be the laying on of hands for the gift of the Holy Ghost, but it is a pleading for the guidance of the divine Spirit.

Is there anything new to the Latter-day Saints in the doctrine of temperance, or of prohibition? It has been taught to the saints from the beginning, and comes up now only in a concrete way.

The Lord does not require us to be constantly upon our knees in prayer, but He does demand us to be loyal to His word and to live by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. The best that is in us should be devoted to the cause of truth and righteousness. Every talent and every faculty that man has should be employed in praising the Creator's name.

The desires that are uppermost in our hearts will be manifest in our lives. Out of the abundance of the heart the tongue will speak. The condition of the heart should be approved of the Lord. If there is an unrighteous desire in the heart, prayer will be to the evil one.

Man cannot be saved in the presence of God without faith in Him. Faith inspires every act of mortal life. Faith cannot be saved without repentance of sin. It is the very essence of saving grace. It must be practised all through life. It must not be thought that we can pray for repentance in an instant, and then be free of sin. Without reflection on our part and an inward determination to commit the sins no more for which we ask pardon, else the sin remains with us still.

The cleansing from sin means salvation. If we walk in the light as He is in the light, the blood of Christ cleanses us from all sin. It is eternal life to know Jesus Christ, and no man can know Him, except by the Holy Ghost. Through the operation of these principles this people is making progress, but there is a vast difference between what they are and what they will be when the perfection desired by the Father shall be realized.

ELDER JOHN HENRY SMITH.
As an introduction to his remarks, Elder Smith read from Oliver Cowdery's description of the bestowal of the Priesthood upon Joseph and Oliver, as contained in the Pearl of Great Price.

Many of the people of the world are pursuing a phantom that will elude them, said the speaker. Mormonism, which is the gospel of Jesus Christ, was given to the world in latter days following the appearance of the Father and Son to the youthful prophet, Joseph Smith. The voice of the Redeemer of the world proclaimed that the world was darkened and that the world was in the hands of Satan. The restoration announced the restoration. The salvation of the human race will come only through faith in the eternal God, and obedience to the primary principles of the gospel, and the commandments as given by the Son of God are plain and clear and contain none of the verbiage so prevalent in man-made creeds.

"Man will be punished for his own sin and not for Adam's transgressions, nor for the misdoings of anyone else. All who live in a manner approved of the Father will have eternal life, and the saving hand of the Redeemer reaches out to all who died without hearing His blessed name, and all who die before arriving at the age of accountability are already secure in the Father's kingdom."

In conclusion, Elder Smith bore a powerful testimony of the truth of the gospel of the Son of God, as proclaimed in latter times, and in fervent words admonished the Latter-day Saints to be true to its precepts.

MIGRATORY ART GALLERY.
United States Marshal is Asked to Apprehend Army Deserter.

United States Marshal L. H. Smyth has received descriptions of two deserters from the United States army. Both men are tattooed, one, William Lane, to such an extent that he would be a drawing card at a dime museum. On his right forearm is the bust of a sailor girl, on his left forearm a ship, on his right arm a cross and flag; three birds on left shoulder. Japanese woman on left upper arm; letters "W. L." circle and heart pierced by arrow on left forearm; eagle and three smaller birds on right shoulder; Chinese woman on right arm; and ship on right forearm. Lane deserted from the Twenty-second Infantry, while stationed at Fairbanks, Alaska, and he took with him $11.50, which he held in trust as paymaster's clerk.

C. Crenney, the other deserter, is

The Abraham Lincoln centenary was specially observed yesterday morning at the Baptist church, where Rev. Louis Howerton, the pastor, preached a strong discourse on the life of the great emancipator. The local post of the G. A. R., the Women's Relief corps, and Sons of Veterans, in addition to the regular congregation, completely filled the auditorium, which was attractively decorated with national colors and flags. Mr. Howerton took as his text, Acts vii: 35, "The same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer."

An interesting program has been arranged, consisting for the most part of music and recitations. Speeches will be made by Arthur L. Thomas and William H. Pollard, presidents of the two societies, and the following soloists and elocutionists will take part: Miss Lizzie Thomas Edwards, Horace S. Engstrom, Miss Charlotte Edwards, Miss Esther Davis, Mrs. Timothy Edwards, Miss Irene White, H. I. Bowles, Evan Arthur and John W. Summerville.

Drug Store, 112 and 114 South Main St. B

A MATTER OF CHOICE.
Really, as a matter of choice, we would rather have ten persons deposit $10 each than one person $100; or ten persons deposit $100 each than one person $1,000; or ten persons deposit $1,000 each than one person $10,000. True, these smaller deposits give us more labor in caring for them, still we prefer them. No one, therefore, should be at all timid about bringing in small deposits. Make our bank your bank.
